

ENTITY	REASON FOR EXISTENCE	FOCUS	SCOPE	BENEFICIARIES
Winter Cereal Trust	To promote and enhance the SA winter cereals value chain .	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Undertake and/or financially support scientific, technical or industrial research Further the winter cereal industry in SA by: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> supporting the maintenance of information required by the winter cereal industry in the Republic of South Africa; broadening market access in respect of South African produced winter cereals; and supporting the administration of the Wheat Forum or its successor in title. 	Winter cereals – wheat, barley, oats Non-commercial approach Paid on local as well as imported grain	All entities/persons who, in the discretion of the trustees, undertake research on wheat, barley and oats in SA or are involved in the maintenance of information required by industry in SA, the broadening of market access for SA produced winter cereal and the administration of the Wheat Forum.
SACTA	To deter infringement of plant breeder's rights on seed in self-pollinated crops which may be "farm-saved".	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Collect royalties on self-pollinated Grains at first point of sale or import on behalf of Principals (the seed companies) as provided for by Law Distribute royalties to Principals (the seed companies) according to the predetermined market share Incentivise Principals (the seed companies) to continue developing new varieties/releasing varieties into SA and thus promote international competitiveness of the local crop production sector. 	All self-pollinated crops – soybeans, wheat, barley, oats, canola and various others. NOT limited to grains & oilseeds Commercial approach Paid on locally produced crops only	All seed companies that have Agency Agreements with SACTA.